A TITLE

New York, Jan. 27.—The marriage ceremony uniting Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi, of Hungary, was performed a few minutes past noon today, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, corner of Fifth avenue and Fifty-eighth street. As, upon previous occasions, when American heiresses have bestowed themselves upon titled foreigners, the ceremony was witnessed by that select and exclusive body known as "society."

It is said that the bride's wedding gown and lingerie, worn at the ceremony, cost nearly $10,000, and that the wedding presents are valued at $500,000. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, and has a fortune of more than $12,000,000. The groom, it is said, is also very wealthy.

PENNSYLVANIA GRAFT CASES

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 27.—What promises to be the most notable prosecution of alleged public grafters that has ever taken place in this country, was begun in the Dauphin County Court today, when the cases of fourteen men, charged with conspiracy to defraud in the building of the Pennsylvania capitol, were called for trial before Judge Kunkel. Rumors of colossal frauds in connection with the contract for building and furnishing the new capitol building gained currency even before the building had been completed and dedicated. A Capitol Investigating commission was appointed to probe the matter to the bottom and the result of its report was wholesale indictments of public officials, politicians, contractors and others. These were charged with swindling the State to the extent of $5,000,000.

SOUTH DAKOTA IN COMMISSION

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—The armored cruiser, South Dakota, became a part of the active strength of the American navy at Mare Island today, when, in the presence of her crew and a number of spectators, the United States flag was raised at her stern and the vessel was formally placed in commission. The South Dakota is of 18,680 tons and was built at the Union Iron works, at a cost of $3,750,000. She will be attached to the second division of the Pacific fleet in command of Rear Admiral Seabee.

FIREMEN AND ENGINEMEN

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 27.—Railroad men from all over the United States and Mexico will gather in San Antonio on Wednesday, Jan. 29, Thursday 30, and on Friday 31, at the annual convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. This organization has 725 lodges, scattered over this country and Mexico, and a membership of 63,000. It has, also, a Ladies' Auxiliary Society with a large membership, which will meet here at the same time. Its president is Mrs. Frank P. Sargent, wife of the United States commissioner of immigration. She will not be present, but will be represented by Mrs. Agnes String, of Boone, Iowa. The Grand Master of the Order, John J. Hannahan, of Chicago, will preside. It is expected that Governor Campbell will address the convention, and also Mayor Bryan Callaghan, and C. B. Mullaly, president of the Business Men's Club. From the reservations being made in local hotels and lodging houses, it is expected that between one and two thousand will be in attendance.

RINK MUSICAL.

The managers of the Rink invite the public to hear another fine concert by the Imperial Orchestra. Thursday night. Come, and enjoy the music, the pictures and the skating.

VETERAN SOLDIER RETIRES

VETERAN SOLDIER RETIRES.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Today, after a distinguished career of more than forty years as an officer of the United States army, Brigadier General Medore Crawford, who commanded the military detachment which guarded Guiteau the day he was executed, was placed on the retired list of the army, on account of having reached the age limit.

General Crawford is a native of Oregon, and received his appointment to the military academy from that State in 1863, graduating as a second lieutenant in the Second artillery in 1867. He saw much of frontier duty, and while stationed at Fort Clark, in 1878, took part in the expedition into Mexico. During the war with Spain, he served in the field at Tampa and Savannah, and, later, commanded two of the camps in the vicinity of Havana. His most recent command was that of Fort Wadsworth, in New York harbor.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S BIRTHDAY

Berlin, Germany, Jan. 27.—Emperor William today entered upon his 50th year, the anniversary being generally celebrated throughout the empire. Berlin was gay with flags and bunting and business was generally suspended in honor of the holiday. During the day, his majesty received countless messages of congratulation from the various rulers of Europe and from municipalities and societies throughout Germany.

ARISTOCRACY WED.

Hungarian Count and Miss Vanderbilt United.

New York, Jan. 27.—The wedding of Miss Gladys Moore Vanderbilt, daughter of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, to Count Laszlo Szechenyi, a member of the Hungarian nobility, lieutenant of hussars and hereditary member of the Austro-Hungarian parliament, took place at the Fifth avenue home of the bride's mother Monday afternoon. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about 350 guests in the salon on the Fifth avenue side of the Vanderbilt residence. At one end of the long room an altar was placed under a bow of bending palm tree tops, which came together, forming an arch under which the bridal party proceeded to the altar. About trunks of palms were twined thousands of orchids.

Miss Vanderbilt was accompanied to the altar by her elder brother, Cornelius, and the count was accompanied by his best man, Count Anton Sigray. The wedding ceremony was performed by Mr. M. J. Lavelle, rector of St. Patrick's cathedral, assisted by Rev. John J. Byrne. The wedding chorus from Gaul's cantata, "Ruth," was sung by thirty boys of St. Patrick's chancel choir.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, with embroidery, point lace and garlands of orange blossoms. Her veil was point lace, caught with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bouquet orchids and gardenias. Her bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Vanderbilt Twombly, her cousin, and Miss Dorothy Whitney, daughter of the late W. C. Whitney. The bride was also attended by her little niece, Miss Flora Payne Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney.

Among the ushers were Count Stefan Szechenyi and Count Paul Esterhazy. Among the guests were Baron Hengelmuller von Henegervar, Austrian ambassador to the United States and wife and Alfred and Reginald Vanderbilt, brothers of the bride.

Many of the most prominent members of New York society were among the guests, while outside the Vanderbilt residence a great crowd of curious people, thronged the sidewalk and street.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, the guests being distributed at various tables throughout the house. All through the rooms were beautiful decorations, with palms and arches predominating.

Count and Countess Szechenyi went to Newport to remain for a week at the home of Reginald Vanderbilt.

GRIFFITHS ARE HERE!

MR. GRIFFITH MADE WILD RIDE BLINDFOLDED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON—HERE FOR THE WEEK.

The Griffith Hypnotic Comedy opened a weeks engagement in this city last night. The regular series of performances were prefaced yesterday afternoon by a wild, blindfolded, ride by Mr. Griffith over some of the principal streets, carrying out the announcement made in the Eagle Sunday morning. A committee was selected, and drove a carriage and two horses over certain streets, unknown to Mr. Griffith, while he was in the hands of another committee, all the gentlemen being well known Bryanites. The first committee returned to the starting point in front of Meyer's Store, and Mr. Griffith, after being securely blindfolded, entered the vehicle with them, and without the usual contact, drove the team nearly all the time at a gallop over the same route and found a knife hidden by the party in a box in front of the store of Lawrence & Co. Hundreds of people crowded the streets and witnessed the remarkable test.

At the conclusion of the performance last night, one of the young men of the company was placed under a hypnotic sleep in the large show window of the Smith Drug Co., where he will remain for forty-eight hours and may be seen by the public today and tomorrow.

The performance last night took a wide range of hypnotic tricks, and the audience was well pleased. Many persons in the crowd acted as subject.

TROUBLE AT WORTHAM.

YOUNG MAN ARRESTED HERE YESTERDAY IN CONNECTION WITH A SHOOTING SCRAPE.

Trouble occurred at Wortham some time Sunday night, an operator, named Gordon Underwood, being shot in the arm and breast, the ball penetrating the lungs. Officers here were advised to look out for a party, whose description was given. They were on the alert yesterday morning and Deputy Sheriff Conlee arrested a young man on the west side of town, answering the description. He was placed in jail, and later taken to Hearne at 1:38 by Sheriff Nall. A deputy sheriff and city marshal met them there and took the young man back to the scene of the trouble.

When arrested, he was relieved of a 38-calibre Colt's pistol. When told what he was charged with, he said: "It's a lie; I didn't do it." He was a very communicative in disposition, but gave his name as Thomas Wolf, his residence as Houston, and said he was a painter. It appears that other parties were mixed up in a disturbance at Wortham, and that some of them were arrested at the time. One of them escaped at the time the shooting was done, it is claimed. The officers here are confident they got the right man. Underwood's wound may or may not prove fatal.

DEATH OF REV. J. A. DUNCAN.

Passed Away at Temple—Was Pioneer Preacher in This Section of the State.

Rev. J. A. Duncan died at his home in Temple, Saturday night, and was buried at Belton Sunday afternoon. Rev. Duncan was 86 years old, and a native of Scotland. He came to Texas in his youth and formerly lived in Bryan and also in Grimes county. He was a pioneer preacher in this section of the state, and is well remembered by older citizens. He was a talented, educated, Christian gentleman, and his long life was fruitful in its activities and beneficent influences. He was twice married, and is survived by his wife and several children. The latter are: Mrs. M. E. Martin, of this city; S. D. A. Duncan, and A. P. Duncan, of Waco; Ed Duncan of Austin; Mrs. Louie Eilers, of Bastrop; and a young son, Donald, 15 years old, by his last marriage. Mrs. Martin was with him at the time of his death; and his grandson, Mr. Ed Martin, attended the funeral. Rev. Duncan was first married to Miss Marion Locke, at Watertown, N. Y., in 1844. She died at Belton in 1888. His second marriage was to Mrs. E. T. Young at Temple.

Rev. Duncan was a preacher over 50 years, and actively engaged in the work of the ministry to the time of his death. He was a high degree Mason and Shriner.

The Eagle joins other friends in extending sympathy to the family.

BIG FIRE AT CHICAGO.

Property Valued at Half Million Dollars Destroyed.

FIREFIGHTER IS MISSING.

Strong North Wind Carried the Flames From the Structure Where Conflagration Started to a Hotel and the Latter Roaring Furnace.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—One fireman is supposed to have been killed, more than a score of others injured and property valued at $500,000 destroyed in a fire which devastated the Mayer building, a seven-story brick, and Hotel Florence at 163-167 Adams street, early Monday.

The fire broke out in the basement of the Mayer and spread so rapidly when the first detachment of firemen arrived that the entire building was in flames. A strong north wind swept the flames to the adjacent hotel building and in a short time the latter building was also a roaring furnace. The frames and roofs of both buildings collapsed one hour later, carrying with them an entire company of firemen. All except one—James Gallagher of truck company No. 1—escaped. His body is believed to be in the ruins.

CONFINED TO BLOCK.

Flames Had to Be Fought For a Considerable Time.

Portland, Me., Jan. 27.—Fire which several times threatened to wipe out the business section of this city and which caused a damage estimated at over $900,000 was kept confined to the block in which it started after almost ten hours of fighting by Portland's firemen, aided by men and apparatus from several outside cities.

The fire started in the wholesale dry goods house of Millen, Cousins & Co., and in half the building the greater part of the loss was sustained. Later, when the fire was thought to be under control, the other half of the building, occupied by A. F. Fox & Sons, were invaded by the flames which made their way through the roof and part of the wall simultaneously, and the $250,000 stock of boots and shoes was ruined.

A remarkable feature of the fire was the entire absence of sufficient warning not being given, which might have resulted seriously for some eight or ten men. The crew of engine No. 5 was standing beneath the wall on the Market street side of the burned block when an explosion was heard, followed by the fall of the wall. The explosion warned the men and all got away before the debris fell.

Parker, Thomas & Co., sustained a loss by water and smoke, estimated at $100,000, and the Cook, Everath and Pennell company, wholesale druggists; the F. O. Bailey company, carriages; Lewis & Co., wholesale clothing; A. H. Berry & Co., boots and shoes; M. A. Waterhouse & Co., hardware dealers; and Russ, Evelth & Ingalls, wholesale dry goods dealers jointly suffer losses aggregating $100,000.

The fire assumed such proportions Mayor Leighton called for help from cities in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine.

Several Resume.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 27.—Two more big open hearth furnaces resumed work here Monday, while the nineteen inch and twenty-eight inch rolling mill departments at the Eastern Steel company's mills also started up full handed. Thirty-eight collieries of the Reading Coal and Iron company, employing 30,000 men, idle since Dec. 23, also went to work, while 1,000 men at the same company's shops resumed work on reduced hours.

Second Attempt to Rob Armory.

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—The Call says: Balls fired with deadly intent by National guard sharpshooters frustrated a second attempt to rob the armory of companies K and M, Fifth infantry National guard. In the building, which is located at Buchanan and Walter streets, are kept valuable military maps of San Francisco's coast defense and topographical plans of the peninsula.

Run Over and Killed.

Chickasha, Okla., Jan. 27.—Roland, aged six years, son of A. B. Strain, was run over by a wagon and instantly killed here. The little fellow was with his parents, and they were returning home with a load of feed, and were driving rather fast, when the jolting of the wagon caused the child to fall out. The wheels passed over his chest, killing him instantly.

Enormous Orange Crop.

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—The orange crop harvest of California is now in full season. In quantity and in quality it promises to break all records. Fruit exchanges state the estimate of total output will reach the enormous sum of 30,000 carloads, about 9,000,000 boxes, or 1,350,000,000 oranges. The harvest will last until July 4.

Bled to Death.

Mobile, Jan. 27.—The body of Jefferson Davis, a white man employed at a cotton mill near here, was found in the woods one mile from Crychton, a suburb of Mobile. He had been shot in the thigh and bled to death. Olney Sims, a young negro, has been arrested, charged with the crime.

Memorial to Randall.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 27.—Patriotic organizations and private citizens of this city have started a movement to erect a memorial shaft to James R. Randall, author of "Maryland, My Maryland," to be placed between those of Howe and Wilde in Greene street.

FAMILY DOCTOR TESTIFIES

English Physician Also Says He Treated Thaw.

New York, Jan. 27.—Charles Francis Bingham, the Thaw family physician of Pittsburgh, was put on the witness stand when court was resumed Monday in the trial of Harry K. Thaw. Dr. Bingham told of the early symptom of nervousness in Harry Thaw, saying he was first called to attend the boy when he was three years old. At that time the nervousness often bordered on convulsions. The attacks usually followed various children's diseases. Thaw slept badly as a child, requiring a relay of nurses most of the time.

Dr. Bingham said that in the fall of 1903 he was called to attend Harry Thaw at Pittsburgh and treated him for nervousness and melancholia. This was after Thaw's first trip abroad with Evelyn Nesbit. Witness saw Thaw several times in the months after his arrest and defendant always referred to the Maugham Square Garden tragedy as an act of Providence. Thaw's acts in prison impressed witness as irrational.

Following Dr. Bingham was first of the foreign witnesses—Dr. Russell Wells of London—who was called to attend Thaw in the English capital in the early part of 1899. "Mr. Thaw was in a very nervous condition," said Dr. Wells. His pulse was extremely rapid and he complained of pains in his head. I diagnosed his case as one of mental disturbances.

On one of his visits to defendant the witness said he found his patient in a highly excitable state, despite the fact that his temperature was ninety-nine degrees. Thaw did not respond to treatment, even opiates failing, and Dr. Wells said he decided to send the young man to the Devonshire Nursing association's hospital. On another visit found Thaw dancing about room like a mad man. He reported the case at the hospital as acute mania.

The defense completed Monday morning the introduction of all testimony. Shortly before the noon recess Mr. Littleton, chief counsel for defendant, began to read a long and carefully prepared hypothetical question to the three jurors engaged in the testimony in Harry K. Thaw's behalf. The question covered all the testimony in the case. Before being read it had been submitted to District Attorney Jerome for any objection the prosecution had to offer. Only slight changes resulted; as the testimony in the present hearing differed largely from that on the first trial.

LIQUIDATION BEGINS.

Absence of Excitement About National Bank of North America.

New York, Jan. 27.—The liquidation of the National Bank of North America was begun Monday. Charles A. Hanna, national bank examiner of this district, who was appointed receiver, had a conference with Comptroller Ridgely, President Havemeyer of the bank and some of the bank's legal advisors. No authoritative statement was issued by any of the officials, but the opinion was expressed that depositors would be paid in full within sixty days.

The closing of the bank occasioned little surprise in financial circles and seemed to have only a slightly adverse stock market influence. A small crowd gathered at the doors of the institution all morning, but there was an absence of the excitement which marked the disturbance in the financial district last October and November. There were notices posted stating various other banks would accept and pay drafts on the National Bank of North America made by out of town correspondents.

Pacific Coast Wheat Clearings.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 27.—The total wheat clearings from the Pacific coast for the week ending Jan. 25 amounted to 782,083 bushels, all of which is consigned to the United Kingdom from Puget sound. Flour to amount of 15,860 barrels was also cleared for the United Kingdom from Puget sound.

Holds It Is Discrimination.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 27.—The supreme court, in an opinion by Judge Burgess, decided that laws requiring free return transportation be given shippers with each carload of livestock by railroads in this state are unconstitutional on the ground that is discrimination in rates against other shippers.

Thought Murdered.

Superior, Wis., Jan. 27.—John Esmond, an employe on railroad construction in this city, was found dead in a deserted building. The body was frozen. A blanket had been thrown over it and beside it lay a jack knife and double bladed ax, both smeared with blood. It is supposed he was murdered.

Shoots Himself to Death.

Nashville, Jan. 27.—William Caldwell, aged twenty-one years, son of James E. Caldwell, president of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company, committed suicide at the residence of his father by shooting himself with a revolver. Young Caldwell's mind was unbalanced.

Try This For Catarrh.

Free tests are now being supplied by mail to all Catarrh sufferers. There is no expense—no obligation whatever. Dr. Shoop is combining Oil of Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, Oil of Wintergreen, etc., and is incorporating these ingredients into a pure, snow-white cream-like Imported Petrolatum. This Creation—Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy—gives immediate and lasting relief to catarrh of the nose and throat. That all may first test it free, these trial boxes are being mailed without charge, simply to encourage these tests and thus fully demonstrate, beyond doubt, the value of this combination. If Catarrh has extended down to the stomach or bowels, then Dr. Shoop's Restorative must also be used internally if a complete cure is to be expected. Otherwise the Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy will alone be entirely sufficient. Write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., for sample and book. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Which book shall I send you?
